

Funded projects for the structural integration of gender equality

Call for Proposals 2025

The Gender Equality Office is funding projects aimed at boosting the structural integration of gender equality in the faculties. The funding is aimed towards projects contributing to cultural or structural change (e.g. supporting gender equality, antidiscrimination, awareness-raising and career development).

Maximum funds of 10 000 € will be allocated to each project.

All units of the University of Bonn may apply for funding.

There is no legal entitlement to receive funding.

Submission and Contact

Proposals must be submitted by 15.11.2024 as one PDF file via email to

Central Gender Equality Officer
Gabriele Alonso Rodriguez
gleichstellungsbeauftragte@zgb.uni-bonn.de

Submission of Application

Proposals should not exceed a maximum of 10 pages and should cover the following topics:

- What exactly are the project's objectives?
- Analysis of strengths and weaknesses in terms of gender equality in the department (institute, etc.) applying
- What measures are planned as part of the project? How are these measures to be implemented?
- How does the project fit into the department's structure and development plans?
- How will the project be integrated into the department as a whole? Who will be responsible?
- Project schedule and budget
- Plans for evaluation to check the project's sustainability and (long-term) effectiveness.

Further Information

Here you can find further information on the application process and project funding. Please read our guidelines for project funding.