

Maria von Linden-Prize 2024

ANNOUNCEMENT Maria von Linden-Prize 2024

The Maria von Linden-Prize seeks to reward extraordinary commitment to the cause of gender equality at the University of Bonn. Every now and then, there will be an individual, a group or an initiative working for gender equality in their area, out of voluntary commitment and investing a great deal of time and effort on top of their regular responsibilities.

Who can be nominated?

In order to be considered for the prize, individuals or groups must be nominated. Nominees can be individuals or groups from any area of the university, who have demonstrated particular commitment to gender equality in their area.

What must be included in a nomination?

The nomination should include a description of the individual's or group's work, including background, objectives, expected effect and (if applicable) measures taken to establish it on a permanent basis.

What prizes are being awarded?

Individuals are awarded 1.000 €, groups can receive up to 2.000 € in prize money.

Use of prize money

The prize money for groups and departments is earmarked for funding or permanently establishing gender equality measures at the university.

Deadline for the nomination

01. Februar 2024
