

Gender Studies Prize 2023

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

This prize is awarded for outstanding theses (bachelor's, master's, State Examination, church degree, Magister Theologiae) and doctoral theses at the University of Bonn that focus on the field of gender and/or queer studies.

Who can apply?

The call is aimed at students and doctoral candidates of all faculties and disciplines. The prize is intended to reward scientific discourse on topics and methods from gender studies and/or queer studies and to promote the visibility of these disciplines at the University of Bonn.

What are you applying for?

The prize comes with € 500 for the best bachelor's thesis, € 700 for higher-level final theses and € 1000 for the best doctoral thesis from equal opportunity funds.

What is the application deadline?

February 1st, 2024

How to apply?

- » Copy of the thesis in PDF format; the thesis should have been completed no longer than one year before the application and graded at least "Good (2.0)".
- » Abstract of thesis
- » Certificate of degree
- » Curriculum vitae
- » Letter of endorsement from the first reviewer

Where can I apply?

Please send your application via email to the Gender Equality Office at the University of Bonn.

Dr. Martina Pottek
pottek@zgb.uni-bonn.de

Further information at: Gender Studies Prize — Gleichstellung EN \(uni-bonn.de\)

